

LITTLE WOMEN-CON/ LIVING HISTORY DAY

“The imagination is the secret and marrow of civilization.” — Louisa May Alcott

Let's journey to the 1860's to explore our characters and their world!

When: Saturday, September 27th, 2025 at 9am

Where: Concord, MA 1860's (Hillcrest Center for the Arts)

DRESS THE PART

Dress as your character in any way you wish. This can be actual period-type style, or modernized “bounding” (like Disney-bounding), handmade accessories, etc.

*You do not need to spend any money on a costume or show & tell item! Get creative with items you have around the house or can easily create.

*If you have more than one character, you can choose to dress as whichever you like.

SHOW & TELL

Bring in an item that your character would have used in this time period and be prepared to present to the cast.

This can be anything you imagine your character would use. It could also be an in-character journal entry or piece of art. You can be creative and interpret this any way you like, as long as you have the character research to back it up!

OTHER FUN TO EXPECT AT LITTLE WOMEN-CON

Play some of the 1860's best games like rigamarolle, Tableaux Vivants and Nuts & Raisins.

Enjoy lemonade and try pickled limes.

A Historical day of ensemble building, cast bonding and character development.
